CONRAD DIETRICH MAGIRUS AWARD APPLY NOW & WIN

The Conrad Dietrich Magirus Award has made a name for itself worldwide as the 'Oscars of the Firefighting Industry'. The award pays tribute to a pioneer of firefighting and someone who remains a role model for firefighters all over the world: Conrad Dietrich Magirus. Based on his legacy, we hold the competition to recognise the work of firefighters and honour their dedication to serving the community. In 2018, the prestigious award will be presented in three categories:

- / International Firefighting Team of the Year
- / National Firefighting Team of the Year
- / Special Prize for Social Engagement

FIREFIGHTING TEAM OF THE YEAR

Being a firefighter is a professional calling and a vocation that embodies passion and team spirit. You and your firefighting comrades are a testament to this fact every day. In order to select the 'Firefighting Team of the Year', we are now looking for your most exciting missions in the areas of:

- / Traditional Firefighting
- / The Rescue of Persons
- / Technical Assistance

Join in and win a trip to New York

The world's top teams will take part in an unforgettable event: the festive awards ceremony that will be held in Ulm, Germany. The two winning teams in the categories of International and National Firefighting Team of the Year will be awarded a multi-day trip to New York City for eight of their firefighting comrades, where they will visit the legendary FDNY.

*for fire brigades from Germany

SPECIAL PRIZE FOR SOCIAL ENGAGEMENT

Fire brigades are an important pillar of society, and they do more than just fight fires and go on rescue missions. In many cities and communities, fire brigades are dedicated to social engagement, they provide support for public events and they stand up for people facing social hardships. This special prize honours the activities and projects carried out by fire brigades in the area of social engagement.

A festive ceremony and an exclusive prize

The top teams will get to experience the festive awards ceremony live and in person in Ulm, Germany. A personalised fire brigade training programme at the Magirus Fire Fighter Academy awaits the winning team.

APPLY NOW TO TAKE PART

Send us your application form along with a brief mission report as well as supporting images and video material. Please note: The submitted missions must have taken place after 10 October 2016.
Eligible participants from around the globe are:
